

Welcome to Quaker Meeting

We come together in worship
to listen to God;
to know and be known by God;
to grow in our faith;
to be changed;
to support each other; and
to help one another do what God asks us
to do.

Our time together looks like
sitting quietly together;
listening if someone is moved by the Spirit to speak;
including children for a time before or after a children's religious education
class;
shaking hands when worship ends;
and greeting those around us.

You are welcome to join us as you are.
Dress as you feel comfortable.

We believe that every person is loved by the Divine Spirit. There are Quakers of all ages, religious backgrounds, races, education, sexual orientations, gender identities, and classes.

Quaker Testimonies

Quakers' experience of the Divine affects:

- What we do in our personal lives;
- What we believe;
- Changes we work for in the wider world.

Testimonies are what Quakers call the ways we have found to live and act based on our beliefs. As a group, we find that listening to and following God leads to the SPICES:

Simplicity – Focusing on what is truly important and letting other things fall away.

Peace – Seeking justice and healing for all people; taking away the causes of war in the ways we live.

Integrity – living as a whole people who act on what we believe, tell the truth and do what we say we will do.

Community – Supporting one another in our faith journeys and in times of joy and sorrow; sharing with the caring for each other.

Equality – Treating everyone, everywhere, as equally precious to God; recognizing that everyone has gifts to share.

Stewardship – Valuing and respecting all of God's creation; using only our fair share of the earth's resources working for policies that protect the planet.

Faith supports our community; community supports our faith
